

Skipper Six Chills Duxbury, Chilled By Holbrook

Double Hat tricks by Joe Durkin and Tim Smith propelled Cohasset's hockey team to a 9-5 victory last week over Duxbury.

The Skippers continued to get off the mark slowly, a factor of which Coach Ed McDermott is concerned.

In the pre-season Cohasset had to fight back from a 5-1 deficit to tie 6-6. They again had to fight from a 4-1 deficit last week after two periods with a five goal third period effort.

Duxbury led 2-0 before Durkin got the first of his three goals.

Duxbury then moved to a 4-1 lead.

In the second period, Durkin connected again, and Doug Dillon scored to pull within 4-3.

Durkin was turned back on a penalty shot but compensated with the tying goal on a feed from Dillon and Smith in the same period.

Larry Evans got Cohasset's first lead goal in the third period, but Duxbury tied it at 5-5.

Cohasset then lit the lamp four times — three by Smith in the period and the last by Andy Pottenger to pull it out.

Holbrook Game

Nothing is forever.

Well, certainly not in hockey, although with the Montreal Canadiens, how can you tell?

In school ice ranks, though, it's a truism, and Cohasset hockey team's undefeated South Shore League parade was rudely interrupted last week by Holbrook which continued its own depredations in the clan, 8-4.

The game was marked by penalties — 20 infractions — by an epidemic of injuries and less than par performances by both teams.

But when the smog cleared, the Bulldogs were able to depart for home base with a 4-1-1 record and Cohasset licked its wounds over its first defeat in the clan competition.

Joe Durkin put the Skippers in front for the only time at 2:50 of the first period when he scored on assists by Richie Young and Tim Smith.

But from there on it was all Holbrook as the Bulldogs seized a 4-1 lead and never were headed at the pass or anywhere else.

At one point in the third period, Holbrook led by as many as six goals.

Durkin upped his goal production for the game to two, and Phil Drago and Andy Pottenger had one each. Tim Smith had two assists in the Skipper cause.

Holbrook's Mike Sweeney had to be taken to South Shore Hospital after incurring a severe bone bruise in the late going. He was later discharged from the hospital.

Holbrook outshot the Skippers, 33-24.

Hurtig To Fight Permit Denial

Carl Hurtig of Gammons Road is appealing a decision of the Board of Appeals on the granting of a special permit to Gerard and Mollie Madan of Atlantic Ave. Board member Robert Londergan had requested that Town Counsel J. Blake Thaxter serve on behalf of the Board as defendant when the complaint is heard in Dedham Superior Court.
